GROWING OLD RAPIDLY! JOCKEY DOMINICK HIERT AT TANES

Such is the sad condition of so many men of our day and generation. At 30 they feel 50, at 40 they feel 50, and at 50 or 60, when they should be in the very prime of life, they are almost ready for the grave. The fire of youth has gone out, the fountain of vitality is exhausted. Premature old age! No matter what brought it on, the one thing for you to do is to get back the vim, the vigor and the vivacity of youth. Don't loose your grip on life. There are yet many

GOR VALES PLAY HERE TO-DAY. Famous Caundian Eleven to Meet C. B.

C. In Association Game. Association football will be played at League Park this afternoon with the best St. Louis dribblers on the one side, under the name of the Christian Brothers' College, and the famous Gor Vale cleven of Teronio. The latter arrived in the city last night fresh from a close victory over the Ali-Detroit team which played in St. Louis two seasons ago. The game was played in a big snowstorm, with about six inches of the "beautiful" on the field. The final score of 4 to 3 shows that the Gor Vales are playing a hard game, as the Detroit team was about the hardest proposition that any St. Louis eleven had the fortune, or misfortune, to meet. The Gor Vales have been the Toronto champions for the last five years and now held the Caledonian Cup, which is a great honor for an association team in Canada.

Like all Canadian sportsmen, Mr. Bulmer, who is in charge of the eleven and will play inside forward of the right wing, does not look for any the best of it, and when offered the privilege to name one of his substitutes as referree he declined, stating that as the college might interpret the rules differently that the Gor Vale man it would be better to avoid any chance of dispute by having a St. Louisan as referree. name of the Christian Brothers' Col-

KEMPER 16. M. M. A. O.

Walkover, but Were Disappointed. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Boonville, Mo., Nov. 30.—The Kemper

the Missouri Military Academy to the tune of 16 to 0.

M. M. A. won the toss and chose the kick-off, evidently thinking that they would have an easy time of it holding Kemper for downs, but in this they were sadly disappointed, for on receiving the ball Kemper carried it back fifteen yards before being downed. Then, by quick, snappy playing they carried their opponents completely off their feet and soon had the ball on M. M. A.'s five-yard line, where, owing to a mistake in the signals, they lost the ball on downs.

Then Missouri had a chance to show what she could do with the ball, and it was soon very evident that she could do nothing with Kemper's line or around the ends when she was forced to pust. A fumble on the part of Kemper gave the ball to Missouri again and she punted again. Kemper now advanced the ball steadily and surely towards Missouri's goal, and in a short time Mason was pushed across for a touchdown. Mason kicked goal. Score—Kemper 6. Missouri 8. The ball was kicked off and was being steadily advanced through the Missouri in the second half Kemper kicked off and soon won the ball on downs. It was in this half that the Kemper lads showed their superiority over the Missouris. They played like a tornudo in spite of the muddy field, and soon Livingston carried the ball across the line for a touchdown. Mason failed to kick goal. Score—Kemper II. Missouri 6.

Again Kemper received the kick-off and rapidly advanced the ball by mass plays on the tackles and by end runs. Livingston carried the pigskin across the line of the enemy for a third touchdown. Mason failed to kick a very difficult goal. Score—Kemper 10. Missouri 6.

After this no more scoring was done, but Then Missouri had a chance to show what with the ball on Missouri's translated in line.

Both teams were about evenly matched in weights, but Kemper showed up the best in every respect, and, by the gentlemanly conduct of her men, completely won the sympathy of the crowd.

Missouri's full back played a good game and saved a touchdown more than once by tackling Livingston, who very frequently broke through the line or ran around the end for large gains. For Kemper, Hamilton did the best in the line, but all did well.

Chamberlin, Jr., was elected manager and Reverend Cameron Harmon captain. Captain Harmon, Van Cleve, Wallis, Baldwin and Flint are coming back next year, but the other members of the team are in doubt. It is said Zerweck will play no more football. He is one of the best men in the team. Between now and the opening of college next fall Captain Harmon will keep in touch with the situation with a view to looking out for promising material, and at the opening of school next year will announce his selections and put them in the field early for a winning record.

The city of Lebanon has apparently receded from its derision to attempt to tax the eleven a license of $2$ on each game played, as announced. The team was allowed to play the game yesterday without any interference from the city authorities, and it is believed Mayor Horner and the Council will make na further effort to collect the tax. Violent opposition to it arose, and City Attorney Chamberlin took the position that the fee could not be collected under the ordinance providing for taxing public entertainments for gain, holding football games are not played for gain under the contemplation of the ordinance. cession after a most interesting, although one-sided, wrestling bout. FOUR HEAD FINISHES. Talent Had a Successful Day at Crescent City. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New Orleans, La., Nov. 30.-The card offered by the Crescent City Jockey Club to-day furnished some close and exciting sport. Head finishes courred in four of to-day furnished some close and exciting sport. Head finishes occurred in four of the five races. Three of the events went to favorites, while a well-backed second choice and an extreme outsider scored in the other two events. The horses of J. J. McCafferty arrived here to-day from Bennings, and also the stables of Al. Weston and J. C. Gray from the same point.

The fourth race, a five-and-a-half-furlong-dash, resulted in a duel between Kolm Wreath, a Western filly, and Antenesist, a young lady from the East. The Westerner was a slight favorite over the Easterner in the betting. Both were supported by turfmen from the different sections of the country. Both got off together and the Eastern filly went to the front in the first quarter, but she was quickly collared by the Western girl, and from then to the wire it was nip and tuck, first one and then the other alternating in the lend. Amid great excitement both passed under the wire locked together. Only the Judges knew who had won. Kohn Wreath, the Western filly, secured the verdict by the shortest of noses.

The "White Hat Brigade" from Texas attempted to make a killing on Blocker, a dark secret from the Lone Star State, in the third race, and they would have sueceded had not Jockey Sangster got cut off half a dozen time. He was many pounds the best horse, and was only heaten a short head by Sir Christopher, the favorite.

The only upset that the talent received during the afternoon was in the second, in which a lowly lot of maidens contended for the purse. The race was won by George Arab, who was at 10s in the betting. The heavily-played favorite, who was backed from 2 to 1 to even money, could do no better than finish third.

Donna litta, owned by a local Italian, and heavily played by the Italian colony in this city, captured the last race of the day after an exciting struggle with Yoloro, the favorite.

MOUNCE AND COBURN. They Lead the Winning Jockeys at

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE. San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 25.-After two weeks of racing at Oakland and Tanforan Park the battle for supremacy among the jockeys is close and exciting. Of course Jockeys is close and exciting. Of course Bullman is sadly handleapped through his enforced vacation of thirty days, caused by rocking Coburn to sleep with a right-hand swing. But for the ruling of the officials at Oakland this jockey would be far in the sead. As it is, Mounce, the clever little Montana youngster, and "Monk" Coburn are running head and head, each having piloted sixteen winners. They are closely pressed by Bookmaker Fred Cook's lightweight, Donainick, who has thirteen winning mounts to his credit, and cook's lightweight, locatines, who has the teen whining mounts to his credit, and Johnsho Woods is not far behind. Eddie Jones has been seen in the saddie but few times, but this week will probably get down to work. The standing of the lead-ing jockeys is herewith given:

The firm of Burns & Waterhouse, it is understood, gave $2.50 for Seide. The coit did not appear to be a star, and many felt sorry for Sam Hildreth when that horseman in turn dished out $2.500 for the son of Azra. Golden Age, the crack, removed his hat to the new purchase in the 2-year-old sprint, Still, it might have been different had Builman piloted Golden Age. Dominick is a very smail boy.

"Daggie" Smith is again the owner of Horton During the last week of racing at Oakland he sold the little horse to Sam Hildreth for $1.406. Sam won a good het on his purchase, and last Friday turned him over to "Daggie" again for $1,000.

Phil Archibald, the bookmaker, who for some months past has been on the sick list, is back on the track again, looking haie and hearty, and he is as good a judge of hor-es and prices as ever Friday night Phil and one bot of $800 to $000 against Golden Age, and at the track bet Sam Hildreth $200 against $100 his colt wouldn't win.

KING OF TROTTERS SOLD FOR $26,500.

> Friends of Richard Croker Will Present The Abbott to the Tammany Leader.

ONLY TWO BIDS RECEIVED.

Great Gelding So Outclasses Other Trotters That His Career as a Purse Winner Is Overwaluable for Exhibition Purposes.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New York, Nov. 30.-The Abbot, by common consent the greatest trotting horse in America, was sold this evening at Madison Square Garden for $25,5:0.

There were but two bids-one of $25,000, by Mr. Tipton of the Pasig-Tipton Company who acted for an unknown New Yorker and a rulse of 5500 by Fire Commissioner John J. Scannell. It is said that Mr. Scannell acted for a syndicate of Tammany men, who will present The Abbot to Richard Croker as a token of their esteem.

The price obtained for Hamilia's highstepper is considerably less than that patil outclasses all other trotters as to seriously impair his earning capacity.

Commercially The Abbot is valuable only for his exhibition purposes. He is in a class by himself as a racer, and his career as a purse-winner is, therefore, over.

The Abbot was bred at the Village Farm by Mr. Hamlin in 1893. His sire was Chimes, 2:30%, by Election, sire of The Monk, Fan-tasy, Merry Chimes and Ed Easton. His dam was Nettle King, 2:204, by Mambrino King. He is a bay geiding, of good size and beautiful proportions.

His legs are clean and muscular, and support a finely shaped barrel, on which his neck and delicate head are gracefully set. He is the finest specimen of the straightline trotter ever seen on an American track. In appearance and action The Ab-bot is a vast improvement over Dexter. 2:174, and Rarus, 2:134, earlier champions They were course and plain. He is more whose record he lowered at Terre Haute

It is said that The Abbot will be quartered in New York, nominally as the prop-erty of Fire Commissioner Scanneli, until the return of Mr. Croker from England, when the horse will be presented to the Tammany chief with appropriate ceremo-

BACK FROM NEW YORK SHOW.

St. Louis Horsemen Return From New York Equine Exhibition. David R. Calhou 1 of St. Louis and John 8. Bratton of E . St. Louis, Ill., returned from New York yesterday, whither they went to attend the great horse show which was held in that city last week.

While in the East the gentlemen did a lot of missionary work for next year's St. Louis show. Mr. Calhoun says that the next year's St. Louis exhibition will excel anything of the kind ever pulled off to the city.

Louis show. Mr. Calhom says that the next year's St. Louis exhibition will excel anything of the kind ever pulled off in the city.

Mr. Bratton had quite a lot of his horses in New York and came away without any of them. Voltaire, the chestnut brougham horse which created such a sensation at the St. Louis show, was taken away from Mr. Bratton by W. C. Whitney, Secretary of the Navy in Mr. Cleveland's Cubinet, for what is said to be a very fancy price, above $2,00, so it is stated. Sampson and Sigabee, his great brown pair, went to Mr. De Ford of Baltimore for another lancy price. Terese, the mare that defeated the great McL. in the runsbout class at the St. Louis show, went to Senator Eikins's stable with her mate, Jenni. Even Mr. Bratton's own hunter, Ferneliffe, could not get away from New York and was bought in the rush.

Mr. Bratton said it was the greatest show he ever saw in America as far as class and number of entirles went. "Not only were the horses elegant animals," said Mr. Bratton, "but almost every class was an appointment one and the appointments were enough to kill a poor man's chance of winning, no matter how good his horse. Just think of showing horses in perfectly new vehicles right down the line, new harness, new lap robes, hammer cloths, everything new, in fact. Some men who had good show trappings found themselves outclassed in appointments, for everything those rich New Yorkers had was brand new and of the most up-to-date character.

"I won the tundem first with Sampson and Sigabee from thirty entries, and also took the four-in-hands with Byron and Shelley in the lead. I did not have a runabout fit to help Terese win, so I did not show her in that class, which was an appointment one. The runabout I had would have beaten my mare. With appointments I think she cound have won in the class, hot as it was. There was no horse in it better than McL., whom she beat at St. Louis.

"Every one said that Voltaire was the best horse in the letter than McL., whom she beat horse in the letter than McL. w think I sold him cheap, yet I got a big price for him.

"There was a good class of saddle horses, yet I think Mr. Parrish's Forest King, The Frenchman, owned by Boctor Crowley, and, of course, Mr. Orthwein's champion Rex McDonald, would have been easily away up in that class.

frenchman, owhed by Dector Crowley, and, of course, Mr. Orthwein's champion Rex McDonald, would have been easily away up in that class.

"The pony class was very good. St. Louisans thought my pony, Always in Time, was a world-beater, yet he was not better than third in New York. Little Boy Perfect I could not shew, for he was sick.

"Mr. Calhoum was in New York. He made a lot of friends among the gentlemen exhibitors down there. Eugene Thayer of Boston, Prescott Lawrerce and Regina'd Reeves of Providence, the best and highest class judges of harness horses in the world. promised Mr. Calhoun that they would come to the next St. Louis show if he wanted them. These men are multimilitionaires, and are not to be had by every one that asks them.

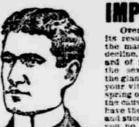

"By the way, Mrs. Cotman, the lady who owns and rides so many good saddlers. promised Mr. Calhoun faithfully that she would bring all her horses to St. Louis next season's show. She is one of the finest equestriennes and most accomplished women! I ever saw.

"While I was absent," continued Mr. Bratton, "I read in St. Louis papers that I had been caught off my guard by a shrewd horse dealer and had bought broaten winded horses with sponges up their nostriis to keep them from roaring. I never heard of such a thing, and my partner denles that he ran up against such an equine brace game. I could not get caught by a trick like that, for I have a test for wind that defies any trick to beat. But it hurts my professional price to think that such a story could be believed by my friends."

JOCKEY CLUB WINS ITS FIGHT. Western Turf Cougress Votes to Recognize the Beuniugs Meeting. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Washington, Nov. 39.-The Jockey Club has von its first fight against the Western Turf Congress, which was brought on by the Western Turf Congress refusing to recognize the meeting at Bennings if it was continued on and after December 1. The ultimatum of the Jockey Club, which stated that if the Western Turf Congress did not recognize the Bennings meeting the Jockey Club would not recognize the New Crieans meeting, has had its effect. Tonight Colonel J. L. Hail, patrol and paddock Judge at all metropolitan tracks, received a telegram from Isaac Hopper, secretary of the Western Turf Congress, in which he states that at a special meeting it was voted to exempt all those who took part in the Bennings meeting, or, in other words, those who raced at Bennings could do the same thing at New Orleans if they desired. BOOKIES WERE BIG LOSERS.

Pencilers Were Separated From $50,-000 at Cincinnati This Fall. After forty-one days of racing, the local season closed yesterday. Newport raced twenty-seven days and Latonia fourteen days. The first Newport and the Latonia meetings were a success, financially. There wasn't much money cleaned up, but it was a relief to those who had been steadily putting in more coin. Manager Fowler had great hopes for the latter part of his meeting, but they were not realized. The book-makers he expected to go on remained on the ground, and some of those who did go helped to kill the game by their piking methods. The track, at that, did not lose much money, as only a few days were bad. The peoforour revenues and other privileges made up the deficit. The racing has been fairly consistent and only in a few instances was there any glaring reversal of form. Form is an uncertain quantity. The "doping" of horses, over which race tracks seem to have no control, makes it still more uncertain. The early closing of a drug store often causes a loss of apecd. While the game was hard for the race tracks, and the weather a little tough at times for the speculators, the general results seem to have been meat disastrous for the bookles. Nearly all of them are losers. Shannon & Co. are reported to be the only winners, and they are, it is said, $10,000 to the good. The losses of the bookles have been approximated as follows: wasn't much money cleaned up, but it was

There are plenty of winners, big and lit-tile, Joe Yaeger, Rome Respess, Johney Fay and Jerry Mulroy are good winners. Our own Jakle Marklein is said to be $4.000 to the bad. The combination book was $2.000 loser, but is said to have pulled out in the last four days. All this shows that the racing game around these parts is a hard one all around. Commercial Tribune. Illinois Congressman Enters the Race-Tanner Willing.

The aspirations of the Twenty-second Dis-

Young Folks of Marshall Wed. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Marshali, Mo., Nov. 20.—Andrew Olton, & prominent clitzen, and Mrs. E. L. Bysart were married last night by the Reverend E. E. Morris.

William Davis, a prominent farmer, and Miss Sophia Snow were wedded yesterday, and at Kansas City Miss Rose Herndon Elis of Marshall and William Kingerly were united in marriage by the Reverend Doctor Diswiddle.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 30.-Congressman George W. Smith of Murphysboro is the latest entry in the race for United States Senator from Illinois.

Senator from Illinois.

The aspirations of the Twenty-second District statesman to succeed Shelby M. Cullom were made public to-day by State Senator O. H. Burnett of Marion, who came here to consult Governor Tanner relative to the candidacy of his neighbor.

Burnett is an avowed Tanner supporter, and while J. E. N. Edwards of Anna and Sydney Miller of Cairo, Representatives from Burnert's district, are not rigorously opposing the Governor's candidacy, both have declined to climb into the Tannet wagon until assured that Congressman Smith is out of the race.

That Governor Tanner is not opposed to the candidacy of Smith is evidenced by the fact that immediately after conferring with the Governor. Burnett announced that Smith likely would enter the race. Tanner evidently does not look upon Smith as an important factor in the contest, aside from the influence he may exert to the detriment of Cullom.

Then, too, Smith's candidacy will help emphasize the fact that Southern Illinois is entitled to consideration, if for no other reason than because she has not had a man in the Senate since the days of John A. Legan.
